Closely connected and convenient

Ideally located close to the business hubs of Cherrywood and Sandyford, and just a short commute to the city centre, Woodward Square is perfectly situated for anyone travelling to the office.

Dundrum Town centre, and the Dublin Mountains are all just minutes away, so it is the perfect location if you're heading out for work, refresh, or play. The Luas at your door, the M50, bus and rail options are close by, and cycle lanes are conveniently placed just outside your door, so getting to and from this sought-after location is easy.

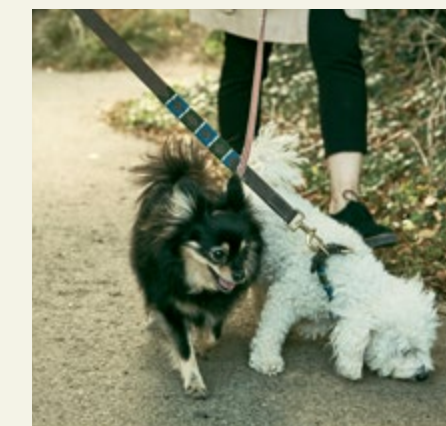

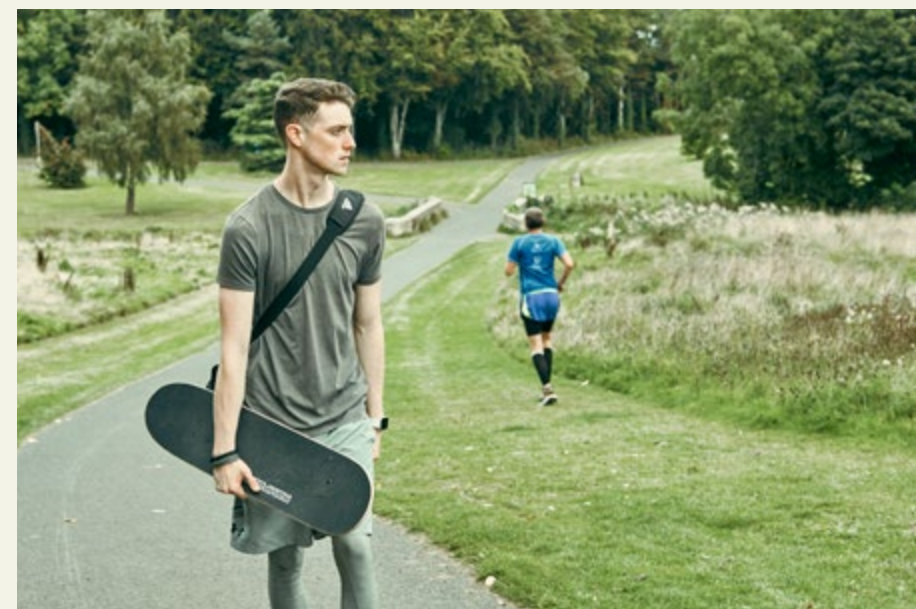

City, sea and shopping are yours to enjoy, with ease and within minutes.

Start here, go anywhere

Live in harmony with nature

Step away from the hustle and bustle of working life and come home to the serenity of leafy green areas, beautiful parkland, and landscaped gardens. Woodward Square's outside spaces offer a chance to get back to nature, to leave the stresses of work behind and relax and unwind in natural surroundings, just outside your door.

Step into a world of choice

Spend the day browsing at Dundrum Town Centre, enjoy an energetic hike through the foothills of the Dublin mountains or meet friends for an early dinner in the city centre.

With so much to do, so close by, you're spoilt for choice when you call Woodward Square home.

Beach, woods, hills, sports,
shopping, dining, exploring,
whatever you're into,
you'll find it close by at Woodward Square.
